12. Commissioner Reports

Commissioner Morris: Was in Florida last week regarding her role as Trustee for Oregon Tech. Friday attended a Regional Solutions team meeting they are setting priorities surrounding improving transportation, tourism, recreation and infrastructure which this Board is really interested in. Is excited that the Bill related to Licensure Reciprocity in Oregon for our military spouses is moving it's way through the legislature. Finally, met with Human Exploitation and Trafficking Task Force for Klamath yesterday, although most don't like to discuss the topic it is a real problem and this task force will be trying to get the word out.

Commissioner DeGroot: Had a busy week last week. Was at KCC yesterday for a meeting with foundation and campaign committee is excited about the movement for the trade center. Additionally attended the Exchange Club ACE awards, it was very inspiring. Been working with Veterans Advisory Committee to come up with more ideas to serve our community veterans. Friday was at the O&C meeting in Medford, interesting things happening in the litigation world.

Commissioner Boyd: Director Fariborz from DHS will be in town this week and the Board will meet with him regarding the ABAWD program and deficiencies within DHS program in Klamath County.
