15. Commissioner Reports

Commissioner Boyd - Spoke at the ground breaking ceremony for Ferguson Hotel, this project being the start of development for Timbermill Shores and future development looks good. Also working with DHS regarding providing our community members better services so they may improve themselves. Still working on water issues, will be meeting with Tom Paul and Tom Byler from the State this week. Was honored to be at the events at Kingsley Field this weekend.

Commissioner Morris - Was at Oregon Tech Board meeting last week, doctorate now available in Physical Therapy, really exciting Oregon Tech also working on Regional Internet exchange program for economic development. Was also at Town Hall with Greg Walden and at the Command change ceremony at Kingsley on Saturday.

Commissioner DeGroot - Had great meeting with Director of East Cascade Work Investment Board and KCEDA about work force development, good work coming from that group. Was at ground breaking ceremony for the new Ferguson Hotel project. Gave address at graduation sensation, great program, gave over 40K in scholarships. Thursday night attended Friends of Children fundraiser, this community gave a great amount of money. Was also at Kingsley on Saturday for the command change and their new Firehouse ribbon cutting. Met with Fair Board yesterday, they are making good decisions for the future of our Fairgrounds. Prayers to our County Surveyor Mike Markus undergoing some medical issues.
